Letter from the President

jbelt@shumaker.com

November is my favorite month—perhaps because I'm a Scorpio, or perhaps it's the nostalgia I feel when thinking about my grandparents' and parents' tradition of clambakes, a distinctly New England (and somehow Cleveland, or at least Mentor) annual rite of passage, much in the way Jigg's dinners are for St. Patrick's Day. Friends and families gather this month to share traditions and create new ones—whatever yours may be, I wish you a delightful Thanksgiving.

We have much to be thankful for in the Old West End. Strolling through the neighborhood anytime, but especially this time of year provides the most immediate and visceral experience of that. The less visible but even more tangible items of my gratitude list for our neighborhood include, in no particular order: friends who are like family (the family you like, that is), a neighborhood whose members share a commitment to their neighborhood and to celebrating diversity and promoting inclusion, a community whose sum far exceeds its individual parts, beautiful green spaces and neighbors who selflessly maintain them, "official" and grassroots activities that allow us to solidify existing relationships and make new ones, while showing off our community to the "outside" world, a shared sense of stewardship of our architecture and the best parts of our collective character for future Old West Enders. I'm sure many of you share the same sentiments. On a much more personal note, I marvel daily at the strength of our community in reaching out and holding up others in a time of need and embracing them along the way. I know personally that it has been a source of tremendous strength during a most difficult time and I see the same for others who experience different types of trauma. It's a beautiful gift and one never to be taken for granted.

November also happens to be election month—not just on the national and local stage, but also for the Old West End Association. Fortunately, the OWEA elections are not nearly as divisive as some other races. To help our members inform themselves, our October meeting was a Candidate's Night, where local candidates came to discuss their platform and entertain questions from neighbors. Thank you to all the neighbors who attended and thank you to the Libbey House for hosting.

Our November meeting takes place November 19 at 7:00 p.m. at Collingwood Presbyterian Church. As previously stated, we will hold our Officer and Trustee elections at this meeting.

Our slate of Officers and Trustees include:

- Sara Haynes, President
- Chris Hanley, Vice President
- Ann Guyton, Secretary
- John Shaw, Treasurer
- Jeni Belt, Trustee
- Tanasio Loudermill, Trustee

To be eligible to vote, neighbors must have attended at least two meetings in the last six months. Our Know Your Neighbor segment will feature Senior Pastor Jean Gay, who has recently been appointed. As usual, we'll have appetizers and beverages, so mark your calendar and join your neighbors for some community building!

OLD WEST END SECURITY

October and November typically see the highest rate of crime all year in the Old West End. As leaves—and then snow—start to fall, they can give would-be burglars a way of knowing whether you're home. Keeping your yard and sidewalks clear sends a clear signal that you are home.

At the same time, please remember that some of our neighbors do earn money by raking leaves and shoveling snow. Asking if you have any work for them to do isn't necessarily cause for suspicion.

Home

Safety Tip: Check your smoke alarms and/or replace the batteries when you set your clocks back for Daylight Savings Time.

Reminder

that OWES meetings are open to the public. Next meeting is Tuesday, Nov. 5, at 6 pm, at Black Kite Coffee -- go vote, and then come join us.

Old West End Security is a supporter-based organization focused on making our entire neighborhood a safer place to live and play. For more information about our organization, please check us out at:

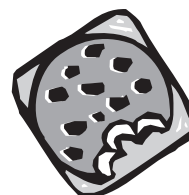

www.OldWestEndSecurity.com.

To report crime or suspicious activity call the police (911 for emergencies, 419-245-3340 for non-emergency calls) and then call OWES (419-902-0982) or submit a report to OWES at: www.OldWestEndSecurity.com.

To become a supporter, please call or visit our website.

It's Cookie Baking Time!

Calling all Tours de Noel Specialty Bakers

First of all, thanks again to all the wonderful Specialty Bakers for all you have done in the last years to make the Cookie Walk such an outrageous success for The Arboretum!

This year, however, we need an enormous favor. Dec. 1st is the Tours de Noel, which means there's almost no time to bake before Thanksgiving along with the turkey and the pumpkin pie. However, if ANYONE would like help by baking a couple dozen (or more) of your favorite cookies to help us raise funds for The Arboretum, please let me know ASAP at jkappwinder@gmail.com and I will let you have more specific details. (You could even consider baking and freezing beforehand if that is easier.)

Many thanks in advance to anyone who can help us. Thanks! Judy Winder
