A great day for O.W.E. residents and visitors to shop the many unique “treasurers” that could only be found here in the O.W.E.

Thanks to our Business Network Chairman, Stas Krukowski, for putting together a great event. New Moon was the morning entertainment and Ramona Collins, Josh Silver, Jay Ronquillo, Brandon Benson, Bob Manley, and Jean Holden provided afternoon jazz.

Kudos to:

Toni Moore, Carol Kutsche, Christina Burgard and Kathleen Kovacs for supplying the Christmas cookies for Dennis Lange's Celebration of Life.

KUDOS TO VOLUNTEERS, HELPING TO MAKE THE OWE BETTER . . . LET'S TALK ABOUT THE AMOUNT OF VOLUNTEERS IT TAKES TO PUT ON A MEETING!

We had a terrific October OWEA meeting which is Candidates Night. Candidates Night is where we have people running for office or representatives for issues on November's ballot come and give a 5 minute presentation for themselves or their cause. It is a great way to meet many running for office and an opportunity to answer a few questions. Kudos to Sue Postal and Chris Hanley for calling candidates and coordinating schedules making it look easy. Kudos to John Shaw for being timekeeper!

It is in our by-laws that we must follow a specific agenda but in an effort to streamline the committee reports section we now distribute written reports. The meeting is open for questions about the reports or you can follow up with the appropriate committee chair. All that said, the one piece of business that must be conducted at October's meeting is reading the slate of OWEA officers and trustees for the next calendar year and accept any nominations from the floor. Kudos to Ann Guyton for leading the nominating committee, also made up of Tom Guyton and Dan Schmitt and creating a fabulous slate of officers and trustees. The proposed slate (to be voted on at November's meeting) is Chris Hanley (President); Tanasio Loudermill (VP); John Shaw (Treasurer); Ann Guyton (Secretary); and there will be 3 trustees to be elected... Chuck Madrigal (replacing a trustee who needed to step down), Christine Palmer (replacing Tanasio's trustee position as he runs for VP), and Dan Schmitt (who's trustee position is up for re-election). As a reminder, OWEA officers are elected every year, and the 5 trustees are elected for 3 year terms with rolling expiration dates.

Back to the topic of this column KUDOS TO VOLUNTEERS: Meetings require a number of volunteers to provide snacks, beverages to those present and technology, for those who are joining us virtually. Kudos to this month's Snack Provider: Misha Brewer! Kudos to Stas Krukowski for providing napkins, plates, glasses, etc. And then there is the running of technology during the meeting... John Shaw doubles as treasurer by day and Zoom Guru during our meetings. Kudos to John Shaw for doing a great operating the Zoom video.

But wait, there is so much more. "Unsung volunteering" going on all the time! Kudos to all of the committee chairs who organize and facilitate committee meetings throughout the month! Kudos to John Shaw, Misha Brewer, Stas Krukowski for being part of the finance committee and coming up with 2022 OWEA budget. Kudos to Sue Postal and Michael Walker for the work they are doing through the Preservation committee on 624 Delaware. Kudos to all the neighbors who showed up to work on cleaning up 624 Delaware. Kudos to all those that helped organize the memorials in the ARJA for Dennis Lange, Carol Dunn and Joyce Perrin. I know I have only mentioned a FEW of most recent volunteers . . . but if you volunteered . . . Kudos to you. Interested in volunteering? Please contact me or any of the officers, trustees and committee chairs and we would be happy to work with you to find a great match with your interest and skills.

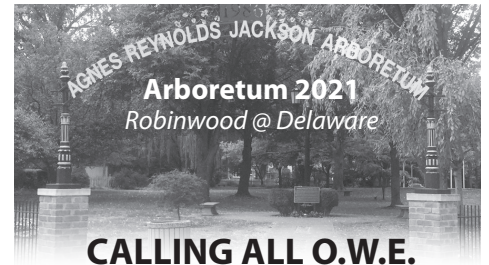

Make November natural, notable and nourishing . . . and do YOUR PART get your SHOT (if you haven't yet!)

OLD WEST END SECURITY

As you may have heard, the 2021 "GET SHIRTFACED in the WOODS" Scavenger Hunt has been RESCHEDULED for spring 2022. Thanks for all those that signed up to participate, but we wanted this to be a FABULOUS event so we have opted to reschedule. The new date will be announced in early 2022.

The scavenger hunt event will be made of 'teams' of 1-4 people. Teams will search for legacy festival t-shirts. Once a t-shirt is found, the team will take a selfie (with the team and shirt) and keep looking for

CALLING ALL O.W.E. BAKERS

The Arboretum board will again be selling boxes of Christmas cookies for our annual fund raiser! Our pre-order format was a huge success last year. Therefore, we decided to continue the sale that way, especially as the virus is still a factor.

In the past we have had a wonderful group of bakers, who graced us with the most amazing assortment of cookies for the sale. The beautifully wrapped boxes sold like hot cakes; so we are again asking for volunteers. We would love to have anyone interested in baking a few dozen of their favorites to please contact:

Judy Winder by Thanksgiving at (419) 246-9333 or via email at jkappwinder@gmail.com.

We are planning for the pre-order p.u./sale on Sunday, December 12th more. The team that finds and 'snaps' the most t-shirts, in the shortest amount of time will win fabulous prizes (many prizes are valued at $100!) It will be loads of fun --- so 'pencil' OWES Scavenger Hunt 2022 in you calendars.

The unarmed patrols continue throughout the neighborhood with special attention near the schools at dismissal time. Please remember to drive slowly! If you are a victim of crime or see suspicious activity, please contact the police first and THEN post it to the OWE Security page, text/call 419-902-0982 or email oldwestendsecurity.com. Join your neighbors and become a subscriber as more members allow for more patrols!!
